

PRESS RELEASE

2018 FRENCH OPEN

Prize money increased to over €39 million

Paris, 22 March 2018

A total of €39,197,000 in prize money will be awarded at the 2018 French Open, an increase on 2017.

In seeking to support the development of the game, the President of the French Tennis Federation, Bernard Giudicelli, and the Tournament Director, Guy Forget, have decided to close the gap between the men's and women's singles champions and first-round losers, while also increasing qualifying prize money by an average of 19%.

PRIZE MONEY MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SINGLES

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SINGLES	2018 PRIZE MONEY (in euros)
	Per player	Increase on 2017
Winner	2,200,000	4.76%
Runner-up	1,120,000	5.66%
Semi-finalists	560,000	5.66%
Quarter-finalists	380,000	11.76%
Fourth round	222,000	11%
Third round	130,000	10.17%
Second round	79,000	12.86%
First round	40,000	14.29%

PRIZE MONEY MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SINGLES QUALIFYING

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SINGLES QUALIFYING	2018 PRIZE MONEY (in euros)
	Per player	Increase on 2017
Third round	21,000	16.67%
Second round	11,000	22.22%
First round	6,000	20%

PRIZE MONEY MEN'S AND WOMEN'S DOUBLES/MIXED DOUBLES

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S DOUBLES	2018 PRIZE MONEY (in euros)
	Per pair	Increase on 2017
Winners	560,000	3.70%
Runners-up	280,000	3.70%
Semi-finalists	139,000	5.30%
Quarter-finalists	76,000	5.56%
Third round	41,000	5.13%
Second round	22,000	4.76%
First round	11,000	4.76%

MIXED DOUBLES	2018 PRIZE MONEY (in euros)
	Per pair	Increase on 2017
Winners	120,000	1.69%
Runners-up	60,000	1.69%
Semi-finalists	30,000	3.45%
Quarter-finalists	17,000	3.03%
Second round	9,500	5.56%
First round	4,750	5.56%

Media contacts:

Nicolas BEAUDELIN

Tel: 01 47 43 48 15 – nbeaudelin@fft.fr

Emmanuelle LEONETTI

Tel: 01 47 43 56 37 – mleonetti@fft.fr

French Tennis Federation